DIAC receives students from the Institute of Advanced Legal and Judicial Studies

A group of students from the Institute of Advanced Legal and Judicial Studies in Dubai visited the Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) on the May 21, 2004 with the objective of learning about the different methods of alternative dispute resolution found outside the court system, with particular emphasis on arbitration.

The students were accompanied by Dr Hamza Haddad, a visiting lecturer at the Institute and the former Jordanian Minister of Justice.

Dr. Al Talhuni, Director of DIAC affirmed the importance of arbitration in creating a suitable climate to attract foreign investment. He also explained that arbitration was a fast process which guaranteed a higher level of specialisation in the concerned commercial sector of the dispute.

The students were appreciative of the development DIAC has achieved on an international level in this field, and agreed with the importance of establishing close links between arbitration and the judicial system as well as developing the Centre to achieve its objectives.
