

Upcoming Training Courses

Training Program for Commercial Arbitration Specialists

Dubai November, 2007

Dubai International Arbitration Centre and the Lebanese University will be conducting the second phase of the training course where participants will be comprehensively educated about international commercial arbitration aspects and techniques.

The program will take place at the Dubai Chamber of Commerce & Industry in November 2007 and will encompass the key aspects of arbitration and alternative ways to solve international commercial disputes. This course will deal with exploring specialized arbitration topics in various economic sectors.

