

Upcoming Events - November 2008

First: The Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) continues its association with King's College London by organizing two further training courses in Dubai.

Due to popular demand we will be re-launching two of our training courses:

A- International Commercial Arbitration Training Course (Stage I)

8 -11 November 2008

And

B- International Arbitration Training Course (Special Construction Stage)

9 -10 November 2008

The two courses will consist of lectures and interactive workshops running in parallel, under the direction of Professor Phillip Capper (Nash Professor of Engineering Law at King's College London and with assistance from a team of international experts.

Second: International Conference on: Activating Commercial Arbitration

"Practical Needs to Develop Commercial Arbitration Law"

12th -13th November 2008

One and a half day conference organized under the patronage of H.E. Hadif Al Dhahiri, UAE Minister of Justice.

- The main aim behind this event is to examine how effective dispute resolution procedures could contribute towards building trust, enhancing investment and further encouraging business growth.
- Bringing together some of the finest speakers from around the world, this conference boasts a sophisticated level of intellectual expertise in dispute management.
- The conference will attract a multitude of delegates from across the globe. Delegates from a variety of different professions and backgrounds will get together in one of the busiest business hubs of the Middle East.