Highlights
On the occasion of the Dubai arbitration week, the ICC invites you to meet with members of the ICC International Court of Arbitration and members its Secretariat for a unique insider view of the ICC’s work and practice. An interactive panel discussion will be followed by questions from the audience.

A second panel will present for the first time in the MENA region the new ICC Dispute Board Rules, globally launched in Paris on 28 September 2015. This panel will provide an introduction to the amendments to the Rules, such as the increased emphasis on the importance of dispute avoidance and informal assistance. Dispute board (DB) practitioners will also discuss how the Rules will work in practice, the costs of DB proceedings and their links to arbitration. Participants will exchange with members of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR who were involved in the revision process of the Rules.
